IMPROVEMENTS ARE TAKEN UP

Road, Industrial and Water
Meter Matters before Business Men's Association

STAMP SYSTEM HARD HIT

The question of improvement of the river road to Elco was taken up, along with industrial improvement, bridge, water meter and other matters of business importance, by the Charleroi Business Men's Association at its regular meeting at the Monier hotel Thursday evening. The meeting followed supper in the hotel dining room.

It was brought up that relative to the road improvement matter the state would pay for one half of the improvement if the county and township would pay for the other half. R. H. Rush was named a committee of one to get in touch with township and borough residents along the road between here and Elco to learn the sentiment and to ascertain what assistance could be given.

Report was made that M. T. Crowley, Harry W. Scott and Hugh E. Ferguson, Esq., had visited James I. Brownson, Esq., at Washington, to engage him as an assistant to Mr. Ferguson in fighting the free bridge issue here. The Washington attorney, who has experience in bridge matters, was quoted as having stated the Charleroi people had a good case in their efforts to free the Charleroi-Monessen bridge.

That the Tri Cities Water company and not the individual property owners, should own water meters, was the sense of the meeting and a committee consisting of John O. Watson, H. L. Swickey, I. Birkin and T. P. Sloan was appointed to bring the matter to the attention of the State Public Service Commission to get a decision.

R. H. Rush stated that R. H. Binns of the Hussey-Binns Steel company, which lately has been putting up a new plant here, had shown the company's need of ground for further expansion. The question was raised as to what assistance the borough was willing to give in helping the company acquire ground and a committee was named consisting of S. L. Woodward, Harry W. Scott and J. B. Tusing to confer with heads of the steel concern.

Discouragement to outside advertising was given when the advertising question came up. Complaint was made that in certain publications local business men have been induced to take ads. A certain sum is charged for a certain time limit. When the time limit expires it was said the ad was not discontinued, and further charge was made. The secretary was appointed to have jurisdiction over the advertising question relative to outside advertising, with power to call a conference with any three business men when the subject came up.

Complaint was made that morning mail service is not satisfactory. Lately change was made in the arrival of mail from the 9-38 train to the 11:21. This causes delay. Shortly the superintendent of the railway mail service is expected here and he will be met by a committee to ascertain if a reversal of the order cannot be arranged.

Councilman H. L. Swickey reported that he had taken up with Assistant Superintendent Griffiths at Mon-

Back from Dardanelles,
Armless, But a Hero

Having escaped death by the narrowest margin, Mark Alexander of Roanoke, Va., is back home with a very remarkable tale of adventure to tell. He was in a trench in the Dardanelles fighting with the British and was ready to hurl a trench bomb when a Turkish bullet hit his hand and caused the bomb to explode. Alexander lost both hands, his left eye, besides suffering other injuries. He was in the hospital eleven months. Decorated with the medal of honor by King George, he has now been recommended for the Victoria Cross. Alexander is only thirty. He went to England to fight in 1915.

ROAD BOND ISSUE SOLD TO PHILADELPHIA FIRM

M. M. Freeman And Company Bid
Highest For $125,000 Issue—Much
Of Money to be Used by County in Completing Old Work

Bids for the 1917 road bond issue, which the county commissioners and controller have advertised for, were opened Thursday and the entire issue of $125,000 was sold to M. M. Freeman & Co., of Philadelphia, at par and a premium of $1,303.65. The other bidders and their bids were as follows: Lyon Singer & Co., and Wm. R. Compton Co., both of Pittsburgh, joint bid of $1,171.25 premium; Brown Brothers & Co., Philadelphia, $1,037.50; Holmes Buckley & Wardrop, Pittsburgh, $770 premium; Graham & Co., and Townsend Wheeler & Co., Philadelphia, joint bid of $512.50 premium; Mellon National Bank, Pittsburgh, $297.67 premium; Harris, Forbes & Co., Philadelphia, $228.75 premium.

This premium is the lowest that has been bid for several years. In 1915 the bonds were sold to Graham & Co., of Philadelphia, for a premium of $2,495.31, the highest price ever paid for Washington county road bonds. Last year they were sold to the Mellon National Bank of Pittsburgh, at a premium of $1,640.39.

It is understood that the road bond issue for 1917 will not be used for the construction of any new roads, but will be used to make up the deficit in the road fund for the roads already under construction and for road repairs. If this action had not been taken by the commissioners it would have been impossible to have kept the tax levy down to 4 3-4 mills, the same as for 1916.

You are invited to attend Mrs. V. P. Stewart's Millinery Opening, Saturday, March 3. 217-13.

SHAFTS TO BE SUNK ON BRAZNELL TRACT

Contracts Awarded to the Dravo Construction Company
—Diamond Coal to Continue Policy of Shipping Coal by River

Contract for the sinking of two shafts in the recently acquired coal tract of C. W. Braznell in Centerville borough, Washington county, located along the river front about two miles south of Denbo has been awarded to the Dravo Construction company, indicating that the Pittsburgh coal operator plans immediate development of the new mine. The tract, containing 100 acres, was purchased from the Crawford heirs two months ago but the deed was not passed until last week, the deal having been held up until the signatures of heirs living in Iowa could be secured, in accord with a story first published in the Mail.

That the Diamond Coal & Coke company will pursue its policy of shipping some of its product to market by river at the Pike mine, near Brownsville recently purchased from the Snowdon Coal & Coke company, is indicated by the awarding of contracts for driving piles to support the conveyor. The contract was given to the Enterprise Contracting company, of Pittsburgh. Fifty piles will be driven, each 30 feet long, near the river bank.

The Pike mine is located along the Fayette county side of the Monongahela river, a short distance north of the Union station at Brownsville and is the outlet for what is considered the richest coal deposits in Luzerne township. The Peoples or Pike mine was idle for several years and was leased by the Diamond Coal & Coke company about three months ago.

Work was commenced immediately in repairing the old tipples but a few days after the purchase of the mine, the tipples caught fire and was greatly damaged. It is now being rebuilt. The mine is being equipped with modern electrical machinery and while no date has been announced for the resumption of operations, it is generally understood that the work will be completed early in the spring.

This morning in communication with the superintendent of the Morganza Reform school Chief of Police C. W. Albright learned that a boy answering young Rupert's description had escaped from there a short while ago. The institution is sending a guard here to investigate. An Austrian by birth, Wheelman Leo H. Luksich, shown in the picture for the first time in the uniform of his new rank, thrashed a man for wiping his hands on the American flag. Luksich had spent eight years in the Coast Guard Service before his opportunity came. He was on duty at the Battery Barge Office, New York, when he knocked down the flag insulter and was officially commended by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury A. J. Porter for his patriotism. Advanced in rank, Luksich was honored at a dinner at Delmonico's and presented with the Bennett Gold Medal.

BREWERY CASE READY FOR COURT ARGUMENT

District Attorney Puts Affairs in Shape for Consideration of Suits
Against Various Agents—Answers
Already Filed

District Attorney Isaac W. Baum has filed what are termed "decrees pro confesso" in the bills of equity that he filed a few weeks ago against the Victor Brewing Co., of Jeannette; Clairton Brewing Co., of Clairton; Independent Brewing Co., of Pittsburgh; Pittsburgh Brewing Co., of Pittsburgh; Steuben Brewing Co., of Steubenville, O.; Fred Anthony, et al, wholesalers, of Steubenville, O.; and others, alleged agents of these companies. The filing of these affidavits of service on the defendants paves the way for arguments on the different cases. They will all go on the coming argument list. No more testimony will likely be filed. Testimony was taken fully at the time that the motion for a preliminary injunction was considered.

The court has already handed down its opinion, granting the preliminary injunction, which remains in force until the final disposition of the cases. Answers have been filed by all the defendants, and after argument, the matter will be up to the court for a final decree.

COAL TRADE IS MUCH REDUCED

Suspension of Navigation
During Six Days of February Spoils Record

RAINFALL IS 1 1-2 INCHES

Suspension of navigation for a period of six days during which time the river was closed by reason of a thick coating of ice, cut sharply into the February coal trade through Lock No. 4, as reported by Lockmaster Sweeney. Shipments for the month aggregated 11,141,000 bushels; here-as, the averagemonthly shipment totals 18,000,000 bushels.

Down stream the record of shipments was as follows: Lockages 225, steamers 193, boats, barges and flats 779, other craft 6, coal 11,141 bushels, iron products 20 tons, merchandise 10 tons. Up stream the record was: Lockages 226, steamers 195, boats, barges and flats 718, other craft 6, gravel 6,000 bushels, sand 6,000 bushels.

The river was closed with ice from February 12 to 17, inclusive. Ice interfered with navigation during other days. Rainfall during the month was 1 1-2 inches.

flicted by George Washington Last December

Austin Mullarkey, aged 27 years, the Pittsburg Steel company policeman who was shot at Monessen December 7 by George Washington, a colored truck driver, died this morning at the Memorial hospital, Monongahela, from the effects of his wound. Mullarkey's body was taken to Pittsburgh where the funeral will be held Monday. His only close relative is a brother, Mullarkey formerly was the chief of police of Woodlawn.

LARGER PACKET TO BE PLACED IN MONONGAHELA RIVER TRADE

A packet service will be started in the Monongahela river between Pittsburgh and Fairmont within the next two weeks by Capt. Orville Noll, who left Thursday for Marietta to bring the packet Valley Gem to this port. The latter craft has been used in the Muskingum river trade and will replace the oil burning packet, Beryonah, which has operated the past year between Pittsburgh and Greensboro. The latter packet was unable to handle the steadily increasing business in the Monongahela river, so Noll secured the larger boat and will extend the service to Fairmont. The Revonah, which is being used in the deal for the larger packet was taken to Marietta by Capt. Scott Dawson.

HOW TO SQUELCH THEM

Commissioner Foust's idea of the proper method of dealing with the potato situation is to inaugurate a boycott extending until April 1. With the prospects of immediate legislative action failing to bring potatoes out of storage houses, and in the absence of any other available plan for prompt relief, the suggestion is worth serious consideration.

Commissioner Foust is authority for the statement that while there is a shortage of the highly respected Irish potato there is nothing like the shortage warehouse and commission men would have us believe there is. Speculators, whose interests are not the interests of their country and whose actions are not inspired by patriotic regard for their fellow citizens have crops under their control that they may profit by high prices.

To be sure if the people can organize against the speculators as effectively as the speculators have organized against the people there will be some squeezing. There will be a quick drop in prices, else the speculators will have found another market for their product.

Commissioner Foust's suggestion is made at the psychological moment. He suggests that until April 1 we forego the use of potatoes. By that time we will have learned in a sense to get along without potatoes and the early garden crop will be planted. If the prices once come down they will hardly return again soon. There is going to be too much garden stock; too many people with backyards in use.

A FEW HEALTH FACTS

Fifty years from now it will be a case for the cart when a human being dies under fifty. This is the statement credited to a Chicago doctor in a recent address. He gave "ten secrets of health" that he said will help the people to avoid illness. They are:

1. Eat enough; avoid too much meat.
2. Breathe and exercise enough to breathe properly and deeply.
3. Drink eight or ten glasses of water daily.
4. Chew your food well and eat some raw food each meal.
5. If you do not sweat naturally each day, be sure to sweat artificially once or twice a week.
6. See that the bowels move twice a day.
7. Lead the outdoor life; if indoors keep air humidified.
8. Form the habit of "doing it to-day."
9. Have a good fad; be temperate.
10. Have a good religion; what's good for the soul is good for the body.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

THE ETHICAL CLAIM STRONGER

It is disappointing, if not unfortunate that the two principal speakers at a great mass meeting in Philadelphia to endorse the bills pending in the Legislature to abolish capital punishment should have placed their main stress upon miscarriages of justice which resulted in the condemnation of innocent men and their legal putting to death at the hands of the State. There is Mr. Osborne and Dr. George M. Kirshway, both former wardens at Sing Sing, were the chief orators and the public was justified in expecting incisive addresses on the plain ethical principles involved in the death penalty. Mr. Osborne dwelt with pathetic lingering upon the high ratio of innocent men put to death, declaring that during his incumbency at Sing Sing four guiltless condemned went to the dreaded "chair."

It is regrettable that Mr. Osborne should have forced this view to the front, not that it is without merit, but subordinate to the stronger claims which could have been made in the name of ethics, since unfortunate convictions of the innocent is not a charge against capital punishment, but against the administration of justice. Innocent men frequently are convicted of some offense, but that is an indictment of legal process, not the penalty.

Mr. Osborne made a much stronger impression when he dealt with the fate of unfortunates who forfeited their lives in society's extreme penalty after society had through its conventional regulations first deprived them of a chance to be other than what they were—permanent set defenseless candidates for prisons and the "iron chair." But the flood tide of the enthusiasm which the shadow of the electric death device threw across the childish bodies of Modern and Hanks, the Jefferson County boys, appears to foretell the sentence of death against the death penalty by the almost unanimous voice of the people of Pennsylvania.—The Pittsburgh Dispatch.

TAX THE CAT

Representative Woodward of the appropriations committee of the house at Harrisburg suggests a tax on cats as a means of increasing the revenues of the state. At one dollar a head he estimates increase in revenues of almost one million dollars a year. We tax dogs. Why not tax cats?

If we do not get a very large revenue directly, we would indirectly, as the untaxed cats would be killed. Cats are the greatest enemies of the birds and the birds save the farmers of this state thousands of dollars each year. We want more birds and fewer cats. Perhaps the taxation plan would solve the problem.

The suggestion is not nearly so bad a one as many others which have been put forward by legislators at Harrisburg in times past. By all means tax the cat.—Washington Observer.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Is it a profession if you profess to have a trade?

There is a raise in a Fifth street sidewalk; due we suppose to the war.

If you don't take your job seriously nobody else will.

The next Mexican pursuit may be more exasperating.

Perhaps it is true those burglars are trying to get caught so as to live freely while prices are high.

It must go hard with an eight-cylinder motor to be driven by a one-cylinder driver.

From 10 to 40 per cent of an increase is calmly predicted by Chicago meat packers. All right, we'll boycott meat too.

Yes Indeed

I never stole a bayonet.
I never hope to steal one,
But I can tell you this, you bet
I'd rather steal than feel one.

A Cinch

It's easy to learn the temperature outdoors without leaving your flat. Whenever it is warm outside there is heat in the radiators.—New York American.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

John's father kept a candy store, and the little fellow often carried candy to school to divide with the other children. One morning the teacher noticed a strong smell of peppermint and began to investigate in order to stop eating during school hours. Unable to detect the culprit, she sent over small John and whispered: "John, have you any candy?" "No, ma'am," he replied. "Have any of the other boys any?" "No, ma'am." As she turned away he touched her hand and said: "I will bring you some at noon."

Now is the time the family will be healthier, happier and get along better if the blood is given a thoro purifying the stomach and bowels accumulated out and the germs of winter, accumulated in the system driven away. THINKS THOSE WHO ACCEPT SHELTER SHOULD FIGHT FOR THEIR OWN ADOPTED LAND

The Editor of the Mail:

May I have a little space in your valuable paper to state my sentiments in regard to a subject which to me seems in touch with the patriotic feeling which prevails today? I am a native-born American and in all this land lives no more loyal subject to our "starry banner." I am a son of Uncle Sammy and have a mother who can stand and say, "Come back with your shield or upon it."

But while in union with other boys and men in our fair land and seeing our friends and relatives go out to defend the honor of our flag which waves for freedom, the question arises: What about these foreigners in our midst, how about the men who for the past years have been taking bread out of the mouths of our children?

They come to this country for the express purpose of making money, which they do not spend here but send back as soon as they get it. They do not intend to stay here when they come and these are the men who will reap the benefit of our American blood. They will stay at home while we do the fighting. They will get the work as poor fellows have to leave. But will they help to protect our land from the invaders? No indeed. Look at the flocking to New York to take passage back at the first scent of danger. Now why not make the ones that are not naturalized either fight or leave forever. For we don't want them here. A land not worth fighting for is not worth living in.

Why should the Italians, Hungs, etc., be exempt any more than our true Irish, Scotch, English or Welsh. I tell you and I know I speak the mind of any true American, if they will not fight let them leave and never come back again. It is simply disgusting to me to hear their invariable answer when asked if they will take up arms and fight: "We no have to fight, me no American citizen." They have hurt us enough in the past years by working for less money.

Now let them shed some of their blood for the land which has sheltered them and given them a living to the detriment of its own.

An American.

HOW TO GET STRONG

A Simple Remedy

Whatever the cause, we want to say to every person who needs strength, you need Vinol as it is the most efficient strength creator we have in our store. Here is proof from Dorchester, Mass.:

"I don't know what we would do without Vinol in our family. I was weak, nervous and run-down as the result of an operation, and Vinol restored my strength. Then Grandmother had a nervous breakdown, and Vinol built her up and restored her health and strength after everything else had failed. We have used Vinol for 13 years in our family, and would not be without it in the house." Myrtle L. Healy, Dorchester, Mass.

We believe in Vinol because we know it is a great strength creator, due to the beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and pure phosphates, all dissolved in a glyceric medicinal wine, so we always return the purchase money if Vinol fails to benefit those who buy it. New Spring Goods

Every day new shipments of Spring goods arrive here. In nearly every department there is an air of newness about the stocks that is delightfully refreshing. It makes one feel that Winter has surely packed up and started to leave and that Spring is already here. This is especially true in the Women's Ready-to-Wear Section where there is being held our advance showing of women's new style suits, coats and skirts.

Women's Suits

We are now fully prepared to ring up the curtain on this before-the-season showing of the smart models for the Spring of '17. Never before has there been a style quite so difficult to be right about.

The new suits have, for the most part, shorter coats. Some are decidedly shorter and others more conservative. A few of the suits have trimmings of a military style—brass buttons, gold braid and a decidedly tailored effect.

Many of the coats are in Norfolk style, but are more fancy than the ordinary Norfolk. Others are gathered at the sides, have fancy sport pockets with pockets in the skirt to match.

But there are so many new and diverse styles that it's almost impossible to tell about them so that you could appreciate their beauty. You must see them—the beautiful blues, greens, tans, grays, burgundys, sand and old rose colors, all in these delightful new styles and the most favored materials.

White Sale at Its Best

"The Largest and Finest Undermuslin Display Ever Seen in the City—and Prices Surely are Low"

This is what one woman in the store yesterday termed this first Spring showing of muslin underwear. Nor is it an exaggeration to make such a statement for there are heaps and mounds of snowy whitewear—literally thousands of garments, in the display and sale.

You'll find every garment highly desirable from every standpoint: quality, style and PRICE. We emphasize price, because in every case it's so small—much less than you will pay later on when the season is more advanced. Strange as it may seem we have neither raised prices nor reduced quality in spite of the fact that muslins, raincoats, laces and embroideries are much higher priced than ever before.

Whether or not you wish to purchase you will be interested in seeing this display. Its very magnitude makes it worth while seeing. We invite your early inspection.

COMPLAINS WIFE HURLED JARDINIER AT HIS HEAD

A libel in divorce, charging cruel and barbarous treatment, has been filed by Joel B. Marston, of Donora, against Sarah Marston. The libel sets forth that they were married at Youngstown, O., on March 26, 1903, and lived together until December 11, 1916, when the libellant was compelled to leave the respondent on account of her treatment. The libel charges that the respondent has utterly failed to bestow the natural love and affection of a wife upon the libellant and has failed in many other duties of a wife to her husband. The respondent is charged with failing and refusing to keep the home of the libellant and to provide and prepare his meals in a reasonable and proper manner. She is also charged with refusing to allow the libellant to entertain his relatives at his home and with teaching their daughter to disregard and abrogate her father's affections. Marston also charges that on one occasion his wife hurled a jardiner at his head and at another time pointed a revolver at him, while, in

Corns Peel Right Off With "Gets-It"

2 Drops, and the Corn is a "Goner?" When you've got to walk on the soles of your shoe to get away from those awful corn-pains, there's only one common-sense thing to do.

Use "Gets-It." Your Corns Won't Swell in Water. Besides, They'll Shrink, Loosen and Peel Off! Put 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It" on the corn right away. Pain and inflammation will disappear, the corn will begin to shrivel from that instant, then it loosens and falls right off. There's no other corn-remover in the world that acts like "Gets-It." No new discovery has been made in corn-removers since "Gets-It" was born. Don't forget that fact. "Gets-It" does away forever with the use of salves that irritate, bandages that make a bundle of your toe, plasters that half do the work, knives and scissors that draw blood. Use "Gets-It"—no more digging or cutting. "Gets-It" is sold everywhere in a bottle, or sent on receipt of price. E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. "Sold in Charleroi and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by P. per's Drug Store, Frank, J. Johns, John F. Carroll's Drug Store."

RAILROAD CONDUCTOR DIES AT MONONGAHELA

At the Memorial hospital Monongahela Thursday occurred the death of Charles August Bening, a well known railroad conductor of Monongahela. Death was due to acute Bright's disease, of which he had been ill but a week.

Wednesday night he was taken suddenly ill while at his work in Monessen and was taken home in an unconscious condition and since that time his condition had grown rapidly worse.

Mr. Bening was born at Mauch Chunk, December 13, 1874, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betting. He came to Monongahela about 14 years ago and was employed with the Pennsylvania railroad. Two years later he was married to Miss Margaret Underwood, and since has lived in Monongahela. Together with his wife he is survived by his parents, two sisters and one brother, all of whom were at his bedside when death came. He was a member of the Monongahela Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Duquesne Commandery

Knights of Malta, Pittsburg Lodge I. O. O. F. and the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors. He was a member of the Lutheran church. The funeral will be held Friday evening at 7 o'clock from the Grace Lutheran church and the body will be taken on the 9:05 train to Mauch Chunk, where the interment will be.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT SOUGHT BY CITIZENS

A delegation of citizens from the northern section of the county visited the county commissioners Thursday afternoon in regard to the connecting link on the road between McDonald and Burgettstown, which has not been approved by the grand jury. The February grand jury approved the section of this highway from Primrose to Midway, about two miles and the section from Burgettstown to the Bulger arch, about two and one-half miles. This leaves a section between these two of from three to three and one-half miles that has not been approved.

There are two routes that can be taken. One begins west of the Bulger hill and goes direct to Midway, where it joins the Scenobville pike. The other goes through the village of Candor in Robinson township and is about one mile longer. However it would join a mile of brick road constructed from Midway and this would make the actual amount of new road to be constructed about the same as the other way.

The delegation which visited the commissioners Thursday was in the interests of the direct road beginning west of the Bulger hill and going direct to Midway. The commissioners have the matter under consideration, but nothing definite was stated at this time.

Those who composed the delegation were as follows: J. M. Aiken of Bulger; S. J. Corbett, representing the Pittsburg Coal Co.; H. K. Myers, representing the Bulger Block Coal Co.; J. P. Linn, representing Burgettstown; O. C. Duncan representing the supervisors of Smith township; Dr. A. J. Russell of Bulger; Virgil McDowell of Midway, representing the Carnegie Coal Co., and the people of Midway.

GIRL'S ASSAILANT IS NOT YET IDENTIFIED

Thursday evening there was no definite information as to the assailant of Miss Helen Watson, who was attacked and injured by a negro on Wednesday evening on Fifth avenue Brownsville, while returning from her work. Several suspects are under the surveillance of the police with two or three arrests. At this time the condition of the young woman is such that it is not considered best to bring any of these before her for the purpose of attempted identification. She is somewhat improved in general condition but still suffers greatly from the nervous shock and abuse she suffered at the hands of the assailant.

WOMAN NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH

What Came From Reading a Pinkham Advertisement.

Paterson, N. J. — "I thank you for the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies as they have made me well and healthy. Some time ago I felt so run down, had pains in my back and side, was very irregular, tired, nervous, had such bad dreams, did not feel like eating and had short breath. I read your advertisement in the newspapers and decided to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It worked from the first bottle, so I took a second and a third, also a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier, and now I am just as well as any other woman. I advise every woman, single or married, who is troubled with any of the above said ailments, to try your wonderful Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and I am sure they will help her to get rid of her troubles as they did me." — Mrs. ELSIE J. VAN DER SANDE, 36 No. York St., Paterson, N. J.

AMONG THE THEATRES

MAJESTIC—CHARLEROI
"One touch of Sin" was the rather striking title of the featuring picture of Monday, beginning this week at the Majestic theatre. In its presentation the film was just as strong as the title. Gladys Brockwell was featured and by her acting and the support of an able cast brought out the engrossing narrative in a way that attracted comment. On Tuesday "The Girl of the Timber Claims" was a high class production with Constance Talmadge starring. The mid-week feature on Wednesday with which Manager Sweeney pleased his many patrons was entitled "On Dangerous Ground," with Gail Kane and Carlyle Blackwell performing the chief roles. Peggy Hyland and Antonio Moreno on Thursday with a charm in acting that won places in the hearts of spectators for them, featured "Her Right to Live," a picture preaching a solemn lesson. Of a somewhat different character is the Friday booking, "The Gun Fighter," with William Hart and the Saturday playhouse feature, "The Love Hermit," with William Russell. Monday's billing includes "The New York Peacock," with Valeska Suratt.

PALACE—CHARLEROI
A singer well known to Charleroi people is appearing in a headliner act at the Palace theatre the last few days of this week in the person of Ben Fields. He is a member of "The Three Dreamers" trio, harmony singers and comedians. Fields is a

LUCKY STRIKE

FOR the beginning of a perfect day no one has invented anything more encouraging than a slice of brown, crisp toast; buttered, piping hot—right from the glowing fire. It smells delicious, and tastes more so.

Toasting—that's the fine, simple idea we finally applied to produce the equally "appetizing" Lucky Strike Cigarette. The tobacco—it's toasted, to hold the flavor.

And what's more, it's the real Burley cigarette at last: you've all been wanting a ready-made cigarette from this "blame good" tobacco.

So here it is, ready for you: Lucky Strike—the real Burley cigarette, and the delicious flavor of toasted tobacco.

Pittsburgher who has frequently sung in Charleroi. During last summer and the previous summer he appeared a number of times at Eldora park with Nirella's band. The billing this week is one of the finest the Palace has had since the new theatre opened. Wilbur and Grace are appearing as singers and comedians, having in addition a number of acrobatic feats. Wright and Earl, "The Brazilian Nuts," have an act of singing, dancing and comedy, carrying special scenery. The forepart of the week the billing, direct from the Harris included Nat Leffingwell & Company in a comedy playlet, "A Night at the Lodge," Harry Rose, ventriloquist in "Joining the Army," and Gold & Seal, in singing dancing and fancy roller skating. The picture program this week has been of a high class nature and an attractive part of the nightly program offered.

COYLE—CHARLEROI
Leading among the films produced this week at the Coyle theatre in point of attractiveness to regular goers was that on Tuesday of "Great Expectations." With Louise Huff and Jack Pickford in the leading roles a story of surpassing charm was narrated. There was no weak part in the film, which was booked under the Paramount program. On Monday the second chapter of "The Great Secret" in which Beverly Bayne and Frances X. Bushman are being starred was reproduced, along with a contemporary film. On Wednesday Viola Dana won merit in the Metro production "Threads of Fate," a film that carried with it a beautiful story. "Happiness of Three Women" was the rather unusual title of the Thursday picture at the Coyle, with Myrtle Stedman and House Peters heading a strong cast. On Friday the billing includes "The Heart of Texas Ryan," with George Fawcett, Bess Eyton and Frank Chameau in the starring roles. On the same day Charles Chaplin is to appear in "The Count." Saturday's booking is "The Black Orchid," with Clea Madison.

NEW DAVIS—PITTSBURGH
Dancing artistry has a new exemplar this season in the person of Miss Evan Burrows Fontaine, a young society girl whose Pittsburgh debut is to be made on Monday afternoon, March 5 (Presidential Inauguration week) at the New Davis Theatre, when, with a company of ten supporting artists, she will head a program of nine refined vaudeville acts. Miss Fontaine's diversification will consist of a cycle of Hawaiian, Grecian, Egyptian and East Indian decorative dance pantomimes. They will be given with every artistic attention to detail and accessory in a setting of rare magnificence, with costumes of the costliest fabrics and with incidental music composed expressly for the production and played by an augmented orchestra under the direction of a well known maestro. Arthur Charmion, a dancer of international reputation, is Miss Fontaine's principal assistant, and will be seen with her in the opposite characters in all her story dances. She is the first American girl to attempt a Hawaiian story dance, all other artists contenting themselves with mere variations of the native Hula Hula. In this instance, however, a complete pantomime is told, with Miss Fontaine in the role of "Lei Aloha." Mr. Charmion as Youth and the Misses Annie LaTity, Emma Smith, Glenda del Garda, Betty McCrea and Clarice Claire as Hawaiian girls. They all appear in the native costumes and to dreamy, languorous, characteristic music. At this time when everything is grasped with avidity by American pleasure-seekers and music-lovers, "Aloha Oe" has been an emphatic sensation and alone has been sufficient to win for Miss Fontaine the recognition she has gained as one of the very few American girls entitled to the rank of virtuosity in the art of Terpsichore.
